DETERDING ON RUSSIA
WHAT IS HEALTH?
THE WORST HATRED.
TWO GREATEST PICTURES

By Arthur Brisbane
(Copyright 1930 By King Features
Syndicate, Inc.)

Sir Henri Deterding, powerful and intelligent, says: "The Russian is a likeable fellow, a great dreamer, musician, and imaginative writer. But you can't organize him. It's hard to organize two Russians impossible to organize three. Therefore, the Soviet five-year plan will not succeed."

Just at present, it is succeeding, however, with the aid of the greatest industrial concerns in the United States financing and building it, and able American engineers working on the spot in Russia. You don't learn all about the character of Russians by studying Tolstoy with his dreaming, or Gorky, or the Karamazoff brothers. You must also study Ivan the terrible, and some other Russians, especially Peter the Great.

From them you learn what Russia can do for good and for evil and how great her power is. Modern Russian scientists and engineers prove that no country has monopoly of technical skill. In will power, driving force, no people exceed the Russians.

A girl from Iowa and a boy from Missouri are selected as the "Healthiest boy and girl in the nation." The girl scored 99.7 out of a possible 100 points. The boy scored 98.7.

Such scoring, of course, means little. Life and health depend primarily on heart, kidneys, lungs, and nerve force.

The lungs can be developed, heart and kidneys can be protected. Nervous energy can be built up somewhat, but you get most of it at birth.

Voltaire, as a baby, had fits, and if it hadn't been for a kind hearted Catholic priest, who showed his mother how to take care of him putting him in hot water when the fits came on, he would have died as a baby. Instead, having wonderful nervous force, he died in Paris long past 80—after a tremendous triumph, in which one of his plays was produced. The populace took the horses and his carriage and dragged him home. He had worked furiously all his life.

Health goes deeper than pink cheeks and sparkling eyes.

The worst of all hatreds is religious hatred. In one of the recently established Balkan countries, 400 students celebrate a gathering by beating with heavy ticks all the Jews they meet and smashing windows in stores owned by Jews.

A mob of 200 prevented the Catholic archbishop of Liverpool from entering Notre Dame convent to attend a prize giving. The convent windows are stoned, railings torn down and the archbishop pelted by the mob but fortunately escaped serious injury.

A recent fire in a Catholic church in New York city is attributed to arson, as is another in New Jersey.

Cardinal Hayes in New York, deploring the unemployment situation, urging those in his diocese to do everything possible, points out that "unemployment is a potential social menace of a very radical type."

FIRE THREATENS DESTRUCTION OF NEW YORK PLANT

Million-Dollar Loss To Result From Gasoline, Oil Explosion

300 FIREMEN FIGHT WATERFRONT BLAZE

200,000 Gallons Gasoline, Oil, Turpentine Burn; Fireboat Damaged

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Streams of flaming oil pouring from the Pratt works of the Standard Oil company illuminated the Brooklyn waterfront early today.

The fire, which threatened for a time to wipe out the entire plant, was stemmed by forces working by land and by water after a fight of three hours.

More than 200,000 gallons of gasoline, crude oil and turpentine and 18 tanks in which it was stored, were destroyed. Piers, barges, a fireboat and tanker were damaged as the fiery mass poured into the East river between the Williamsburg and Fifty-ninth street bridges.

Million-Dollar Loss

Fire department officials said the loss might reach a million dollars. The fire started in a terrific explosion of a 10,000-gallon crude oil tank. Through underground pipes, the flames and burning fuel spread quickly to a 50,000-gallon petroleum tank, eight more crude oil receptacles and eight turpentine tanks.

As the petroleum tank blew up, it tore away an 18-foot brick wall hurling debris on the firefighters. The remaining tanks poured blasts of fire and rocked the area. The liberated oil flowed into the river through westers and over the ground.

Endangers Warehouse

The blaze narrowly missed igniting a three-story brick warehouse filled with 5,000 cases of naphtha and 500 drums of oil. The tank, Vernon, flamed up but was saved. Several barges were caught in the inferno but a number were taken out in the river for safety.

Some 40 companies, comprising about 300 men, and four fireboats trained great streams of water and chemicals on the blaze. Flaming oil was chased from manhole to manhole in a sewer which ran through the plant into the river.

TRIO LOST ON LAKE RESCUED

Fishing Tug Is Towed To Wheatley By Canadians

(By Associated Press)

LORAIN, Dec. 4.—Three men who had almost been given up for lost in Lake Erie were safe at Wheatley, Ont., today, none the worse for drifting helplessly for a day.

While coast guard cutters, fishing tugs and airplanes were scouring the lake for them, Capt. Charles Abel, 47, reported he and his two men aboard the fishing tug N-1688 had been towed to Wheatley by Canadian fishermen.

Lake Erie coast guardsmen meanwhile took up a search aided by 10 tugs and two airplanes which were flown along the south shore of the lake. Besides Capt. Abel, Melvin Easterwood, 72, of Lorain, and Carl Miller, 45, were aboard the boat.

Capt. Abel and his men had put out Tuesday in an attempt to save fish nets which had not been recovered because of the recent storms.

SIX HOSPITAL INMATES FREED BY ARMED TRIO

Flee In Autos From Matteawan Institution For Insane

(By Associated Press)

BEACON, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Three men, armed with guns, invaded Matteawan state hospital for the criminal insane early today, overpowered four employees and liberated six inmates.

Leader Former Inmate

The leader of the gang, who was recognized as a former inmate by hospital attendants, said he was William Nelson, of New York. The six who were liberated were: Harry Gordon, 38, Rochester; Frank Danberkeylen, 31, New York.

Joseph Kaylor, 35, the Bronx; John S. Bangill, 22, New York; John Biggins, 30, Brooklyn; Anthony A. Eiloy, 44, Brooklyn; Dr. Raymond F. C. Kieb, superintendent, said the three men entered the hospital grounds through the rear yard where they encountered Patrick McGrath, the night watchman and compelled him to accompany them.

In the kitchen they came upon Clifford Cooper, night cook. Forcing him to join them, they continued through the building toward the front where they picked up Joseph Brown, the roundsman. Then they herded their prisoners into the front office where Samuel Kane, the night office man was on duty.

While one of them guarded their prisoners the other two went to the front dormitory where the six men were in bed. The six apparently were watching for them. Dr. Kieb said, for as soon as the intruders appeared they sprang up from their cots and ran out. Two of them left clad only in night attire. They drove away in two automobiles.

The superintendent said those who escaped were not known as dangerous, but were suffering from mental diseases which manifest themselves in extreme cunning.

BRITISH COAL MINERS REJECT WALKOUT PLAN

Delegates To London Conference Vote Against General Strike

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Dec. 4.—Delegates to the coal miners' conference today voted 230,000 to 209,000 to reject a proposal for a general strike in protest at application of the "spreadover" hours arrangement to British mine shafts.

Triumph for MacDonald

The vote represented a triumph for Prime Minister MacDonald and members of the cabinet who had sat with the delegates' conference for hours, urging all efforts for settlement of the difficulties with the mine operators, including, if necessary, endorsement of the spreadover.

The vote followed a report of the miners' leaders on the situation and probable results of application of the spreadover, which would entail a 90-hour working fortnight against a 72-hour day guarantee, which the miners have insisted upon.

Margin Is Small

After the vote was taken there was a general discussion of the situation. Observers noted that the margin of rejection of the strike proposal was very small.

Seventy thousand miners in Scotland already are in protest at the spreadover.

FINANCE CHIEF SEES INCREASE IN TAX INCOME

Elimination Of One Per-Cent Cut Will Swell Revenues

WILL CONTINUE PRESENT SYSTEM

Opposition Expressed To Slowing Of Debt Reduction

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—

In his annual report to congress, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today reflected the apparent belief that there will be a revival of business by the middle of next year.

He estimated miscellaneous internal revenue receipts would gain $53,000,000 and he also predicted an increase of $70,000,000 in income and corporation taxes would result from the elimination of the one percent tax reduction granted by congress last year.

Increased activity of commerce and industry in the last half of the 1931 calendar year would influence government receipts in the 1932 fiscal year which starts July 1.

Receipts To Gain

Mellon estimated customs receipts at $612,000,000 and miscellaneous internal revenue, including the tobacco taxes, at $676,000,000 for 1932, both figures being larger than the actual collections for the 1930 fiscal year.

On the subject of branch, group and chain banking, Mellon declared that commitments regarding legislation to regulate these developments should not be made until investigations by congress, the federal reserve board, the comptroller of the currency and the progress.

He expressed the belief that the procedure of promulgating government and the tax-payer an opportunity of getting a prompt decision. In answering congressional critics of the system Mellon asserted "the treasury proposes to continue its present policies."

Firm On Debt Stand

Opposition was expressed to any slowing up in the rate of reduction of the public debt from the present statutory requirements of the sinking fund and the application of principal payments on foreign debts. It had been suggested the sinking fund be suspended during the present year to avoid a deficit.

The financial and business situation during the last 18 months was carefully analyzed. As a result of the business depression and stock market crash Mellon estimated that income taxes, which amounted to $2,410,000,000 last year, would be reduced by $220,000,000 for the year ending next June.

Cost of repairing the brick section of the Lisbon-Salineville road has been heavy during the last few years. The road was one of the early narrow

CAPITAL GAINS TAX

Arthur Brisbane believes the most important paragraph in President Hoover's message to congress was that one dealing with the capital gains tax. Most important to those most interested, Mr. Brisbane probably means. The paragraph follows:"It is urged by many thoughtful citizens that the peculiar economic effect of the income tax on so-called capital gains at the present rate is to enhance speculative inflation and likewise impede business recovery.
I believe this to be the case and I recommend that a study be made of the economic effects of this tax and of its relation to the general structure of our income tax law."Mr. Hoover could not well remain deaf to the protests which have been made against the tax. It has been unpopular from the start and,
following the explosion of the speculation bubble, received blame for over-speculation. The reasoning was that owners of securities delayed taking their gains, which are taxable upon the sale of the securities.
This is the case in buying in the market. As a consequence, the tax is unduly.Capital net gains are defined as profits from the sales of any property including securities, held for at least two years. Since 1922 the taxpayer has had the option of separating such gains from the remainder of his income, and paying a special tax of 12 1/2 per cent upon them, in lieu of the regular normal tax and surtaxes. This provision was inserted lest owners of property and securities refuse to sell them if required to return an exceptionally large percentage of their profits to the government in the form of income taxes. In the Revenue Act of 1921, applicable to 1922 and 1923, the maximum surtax rate was 50 per cent.Preliminary figures for income for 1928 show that capital net gains were 647 per cent ($1,843,339,590) of the total income reported in returns of individuals. The percentage has increased steadily since 1922 when it amounted to only one per cent. As would be expected the percentage of capital net gain to total income increases in proportion to the size of the income, rising from 1.73 per cent for incomes under $25,000 to 47.69 per cent for incomes over $1,000,000.The time is right for an attack on this tax. It can be charged, as the president has admitted, that it impedes business recovery and enhances speculative inflation. Those to whom it is the most important paragraph in Mr. Hoover's speech because it happens to affect their incomes have a ready-made opportunity to work for its abandonment.

THE BUDGET MESSAGE

When you give up in doubt and digest with your own reasoning processes after trying to understand the figures in President Hoover's Budget Message don't feel ashamed.
Better mathematicians have done worse.The House of Representatives, for instance, will refer the budget, in whose preparation the President plays only a small part, incidentally,
to its committee on appropriations, which will resolve itself into 10 subcommittees. The findings of these small groups as well as those of similar groups in the senate which will consider the budget later rarely are questioned. The complexities of the budget are so formidable that the ordinary legislator knows better than to try to understand them without special knowledge.Actually, the people who know most about the budget are obscure office workers, rated by the publicity they receive. They are employeesin the bureau of the budget, established because national finances were becoming too difficult for amateurs to manage. If the bureau's reports on the finances of a nation of 120,000,000 people are slightly incomprehensible, therefore, one can only hope that the help he has employed to do such work is capable.For purposes of fireside argument and discussion it is sufficient to know that $3,932,842 have been requested to run the government for the next fiscal year. Due to a falling off in receipts this year and an increase in expenditures there probably will be a deficit of approximately $180,000,000.President Hoover has warned congress to go slow in the government spending money between now and March. The current fiscal year ends in July.The government's balance sheet, exclusive of postal revenues, looks like this:Year Ending July, 1931
Est. Receipts $3,234,865,000
Est. Expenditures $4,014,941,000
Est. Deficit—$180,076,000Year Ending July, 1932
Est. Receipts $4,085,119,000
Est. Expenditures $4,054,519,000
Est. Surplus—$30,600,000Duly impressed with such figures, perhaps a little proud of living in a nation which spends so much money, each citizen can be thankful that the handling of appropriation bills in congress usually is non-partisan in character. If tradition be followed, the bills which will take form out of the President's Budget message go through the house largely as written by that body's committee, will be increased by the Senate committees, will be pared down in joint conference of the two general committees and finally will come back to Mr. Hoover only slightly lower than they were yesterday, as projected in his Budget message.

The Stars Say

For Friday, December 5

While there is augury of an eventful day, with some minor change or journey, according to the fairly friendly position of Uranus, yet there are omens of defeat and undermined conditions, possibly due to subtlety, intrigue and treachery, even in those matters pertaining to large corporations or secret societies. With particular discretion an dauntless, things may progress mildly. Those whose birthday it is are on the eve of a fairly progressive state of affairs, with some small change, journey or removal, but withal, beset by a menace of treachery or intrigue, especially in the matter of new or secret projects. The financial status is not a strong one. A child born on this day may be clever and adventurous, but may be subject to duplicity and fraud, itself inclining to ways of stratagem and mystery.

NEW YORK
Day by Day
by O.O. McIntyreNEW YORK, Dec. 4.—A cheer is due booksellers and publishers for the debt manner in which they snatched their business from almost complete oblivion a few months ago. All of a sudden the entire industry went haywire. Even book-borrowing began to decline.Book shops, department store book sections and circulating libraries suggested the rotunda of Grand Central at 4 a. m. Price slashing had no effect whatever.
Authors attended sales in the big stores and offered to autograph their tomes gratis but few came.The economic crisis played a large part in the debacle. Hastily written books contributed and there were the radio and talks to consider. This sudden and disquieting avalanche was too much to plug up over night. Book sales came to an almost complete full stop.Some panic-stricken publishers began to announce $2 and $2.50 books at a dollar and others hit upon paper back books at half price. But the more ideas of this sort exploited the duller the business. Its low peak was reached when an avenue shop is reputed to have sold only four books in a day.In the chaos publishers did something that should be a future lesson for other enterprises in the gasp of a sinking spell. Whether it was collectively or individually decided, I do not know, but almost simultaneously all began to advertise as never before.They put on a dignified ballyhoo.
Press material usually sent to columnists tripled. More ads in larger display filled newspapers. Book talks were featured in radio hours.
Coupled with this was more dissemination in selecting manuscripts.At any rate the book business is bouncing out of the red. It is far from its after-the-war opulence, but it is in a healthier condition than it has been for months. There are records too, that in depression book sales sag. With returning prosperity people begin to read again.The firm of Simon and Schuster is composed of two young men—
the New York glorified office boy types—who began five years ago in a single room. On their door was painted: "Simon and Schuster Publishers." Underneath a wag painted: "Of what?"Another young publishing firm is Farrar and Rinehart. Stanley Rinehart is the son of Mary Roberts Rinehart, whose books are among those the firm publishes.
Farrar was editor of the Bookman, a discriminating judge of literature and has a notion—expressed to mutual friends—that this chronicled bears a grievance against him.Once I referred to Farrar as "a pale young poet." He is not applicchecked, is young and a poet. I imagined, in light of what is turned out about me at times, my comment—had a dallop of praise.Just yesterday a clipping from Texas said: "McIntyre has a neck like an ostrich that just quipped a three-wheeled ice wagon, has lantern jaws and the last time he was in Texas went wild cat hunting in spats." I like Texas frankness.
They shoot the piece or give up dice.But regarding books, a seller tells me his biggest customer is a retired merchant who buys an average of 14 books a week, reading chiefly novels and autobiographies. He further says that in his opinion Sinclair Lewis has "the most pronounced following" in America.
From recent events, Mr. Lewis also has a pronounced following in other countries. Including the, etc.In the underworld they now refer to the big shot as "the high hot"—and if the printer makes it that'll put again.I called in Fred Fitch, my chauffeur and severe critic, to permit him to see my house suit from Paris, which he had just brought from the custom's office. It is a trifle giddy, but I see no reason for his inquiry. "That's to wear in a show, isn't it?"

What Others Say

CASTING DOUBT ON A SOLEMN TREATYIn a petition addressed to President Hoover and signed by many educators, industrial leaders and others, the suggestion is made that the United States sound the major powers of Europe and Asia to discover whether they will entertain a proposal to outlaw war by formally and expressly declaring it a crime under the law of nations. It is fair to assume that President Hoover and Secretary Stimson will decline to do anything so foolish and mischievous.The Briand-Kellogg treaty, which has been signed by practically all the nations of the earth, renounces war as an instrument of national policy. It is without sanctions, properly and fortunately, but it is not a mere bit of altruistic phrasing. It is a solemn moral pledge. But the misguided petitioners have set about casting doubts upon its validity.
They assume that it may be regarded by its signatories as something Pickwickian. That is a good way to cause it to be so regarded.Their argument is that any nation is free to withdraw from the pact, while some may be tempted to violate it in spirit while professing to adhere to its letter. International law, on the other hand, the petitioners say, can not be trampled upon with impunity, for it is recognized by all national courts.
In their opinion no group of statesmen clothed with brief authority would venture to commit the crime of making war if the law of nations plainly and unequivocally called war
a crime.The twister of good, but nervous, folk test the Briand-Kellogg multilateral treaty fly suddenly into fragments amounts to the casting of doubt upon the good faith of the governments which have bound themselves by the treaty. That is a preposterous route by which to approach responsible governments of friendly and faith-keeping people for the purpose of asking further pledges of them.The Briand-Kellogg treaty is a magnificent act of renunciation or else it is mere words. Surely the president of the United States will not undertake deliberately to reduce it from the former status to the latter in response to suspicions conjured up out of the dark past—

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

Rules For Feeding Baby
Recently I called at a charming home where a baby of seven months was the centre of household interest.
It was a latest baby, but very, very pale. The poor youngster was irritable and gave visible evidence of undermourishment.

DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND

The age of the baby is the determining factor.Study Feeding System
But age alone cannot be accepted as the sole test of the frequency or the richness of the feedings.
There is but one reliable test, that is the baby itself. Unless there is uninterrupted increase in weight, something is wrong, either with the quantity and quality of the milk or with the underlying state of health.For some reason this mother had recently lengthened the period between feedings from three hours to four hours. As I view it the strength and vigor of the child were not sufficient to justify a limitation in the quantity of food. With fewer feedings there was not enough nourishment.Before the new eating time came this baby was ravenously hungry.
Naturally it jumped at the bottle and went at its feeding so energetically that the milk was taken too rapidly. It swallowed a lot of air as it gulped down its food. No wonder the baby was uncomfortable and unhappy.This is not the way to feed a baby.
It should be done just right, or it is all wrong.

Bottle-Size Vital

The rubber nipple is important.
If the nipple is too long, it will press against the roof of the mouth and cause gagging. The particularly important thing, however, is to have the opening the right size.When the bottle is filled and the nipple is applied, turn the bottle bottom side up. If the milk runs out in a stream, the opening in the nipple is too large. The milk should drop, readily, but not flow.If the opening is large, the food is taken too rapidly. It should require twenty minutes to empty the bottle. Rapid feeding may result in colic, indigestion and vomiting. Under nourishment is certain to follow.Some of the unemployed.—Columbus Citizen.

RAIL WORKERS ASK TIME CUT; WAR ON BUSSES

Executives Of Five Brotherhoods Convene In Cleveland

(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Dec. 4.—Executives of five big railroad brotherhoods met today with the object of making railroad jobs shorter and safer. They comprised the sub-committee selected at the recent Chicago conference to lay plans for obtaining a shorter working day. The present conference, however, is concerned primarily with doing something for the 150,000 unemployed estimated to be on the rolls of the unions represented.

Fight Competition
The other purpose is to prepare for a common fight with railroad operators against the competition of motor trucks, pipe lines, waterways and busses, according to David B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

Robertson said 50,000 men now out of work could be given jobs at once if the number of miles traveled by train crews on each shift were reduced and the number of working hours cut down for other railroad men.

Ultimately, the brotherhoods hope to gain what is understood to be the equivalent of a six-hour day without a wage reduction from the present eight-hour day. Temporarily, however, Robertson said readjustment could be made without an increase in operating costs.

Oppose Waterways
Robertson also said the brotherhoods were in accord with operators' opposition to the government's large expenditures to develop waterways "when railroad facilities more than adequately meet the demands of the present."

After the sub-committee completes its deliberations, the General Committee may be called in. Those scheduled to meet today were Robertson; Alvany Johnston, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; Alex F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; E. P. Curtis, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors; and T. C. Cashen, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America.

permit moving pictures on Sunday for charity, in spite of protest. Why should there be a protest against moving pictures or any other reasonable entertainment on Sunday? The Bible says the Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.

The two greatest moving pictures in the world are a fine sunset and the rushing water of Niagara. The Lord does not close them on Sunday.

Why not let those that want pictures on Sunday see them, and those that want to stay home, stay home?

Why the itch in one man's mind to control the life of another? Senator Nye says he can prove that the backers of Mr. Davis, recently secretary of labor, elected senator from Pennsylvania, spent $641,274 in the primaries, to elect Mr. Davis.

The sum seems gigantic, particularly as Mr. Davis is a poor man, a labor union official, promoted to the cabinet. It would have been absolutely impossible for him to spend that amount of money, or anything like it.

Senator Nye also alleges that Senator Davis' friends spent $272,312 more than the amount actually reported. Mr. Davis, of course, will demand an opportunity to disprove these statements, or to show that the expenditures were legitimate and the "backers" entirely respectable.

THREE BLAMED FOR ROBBERIES AND KIDNAPING

Youngstown Patrolman, Warren Merchant Identify Youths

(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Dec. 4.—A trio of alleged robbers in custody here have been identified with a series of Youngstown holdups and the kidnaping of a Warren man, police said today.

Names Two Youths
Frank B. Gould, assistant manager of a Warren store, late yesterday said John Massee, 17, and John Ramper were two of the youths who kidnapped him Monday, drove him to a lonely place two miles south of the city and robbed him of $150.

He said police there had kept the holdup a secret because he feared reprisals. Gould also said John Harrison, the third youth held, resembled the driver of the kidnappers' car.

Patrolman William Huffman of Youngstown identified Ramper and Harrison as the two men who shot it out with him in a barbecue two weeks ago. Ramper also confessed to 12 robberies in Youngstown in the last six weeks, according to Detective Chief Thomas W. Thomas, of Youngstown.

Massee Is Wounded
The trio was captured here Tuesday night after Massee was wounded when he attempted to escape. Accompanied by a fourth man who ran to liberty in a blaze of bullets, they had just robbed two chain grocery stores, police said. The men who escaped were the one believed to have been wounded in the fight with Patrolman Huffman at Youngstown and to have had his leg treated at a Warren hospital.

FLAMES SWEEP LAKE COTTAGES

Several Summer Homes, Concession Stands Are Damaged

(By Associated Press)
NEWARK, Dec. 4.—Fire swept through several cottages and concession stands at Buckeye lake near here early today causing damage of between $8,000 and $10,000.

Cause of the fire was undetermined. It was discovered after having gained considerable headway. None of the cottages or concession stands were in use at the time.

Fire departments from Newark, Hebron, and Millersport kept the flames from reaching the Lake Breeze hotel, principal hotel at the resort. Buildings destroyed were a restaurant, barber shop, and shooting gallery owned by Joseph Leach; the William Vader restaurant; a cottage belonging to W. J. Gephart of Columbus; two cottages owned by E. J. Holtsberry of Buckeye lake, and C. C. Baker, boat landing on the west side.

REVOLUTIONARY MOVE BLOCKED; BOMBS SEIZED

Explosive Cargo Found In Taxi; Arrests Are Made

(By Associated Press)
LISBON, Portugal, Dec. 4.—Police announced today that a large quantity of bombs and explosives had been seized in various parts of the city, and a revolutionary movement, in which it was planned to blow up public buildings, thwarted.

A mysterious taxicab gave the police their first hint of the plot. The cab was stopped and found to contain a cargo of the bombs, destined for one of the depots of the revolutionaries.

The driver confessed participation in the conspiracy and implicated sergeant Joaquin Feliciano Freire. When arrested, Freire implicated others, all of whom were arrested except two lieutenants, Manuel Correia and Pio, both of whom escaped. The police searched the homes of the conspirators and seized more than 600 bombs.

Among those arrested were a captain of infantry, his name undesignated, two sergeants, and 20 civilians. One of those arrested, Man-uel Monteiro, who denounced his friend, Lieutenant Pio, eluded the attention of his guards and jumped from a window. He landed hard and suffered grave contusions about the head.

AUDITORS PLAN TAX REVISION

Legislation Considered By Association At Annual Convention

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Dec. 4.—Proposed legislation affecting Ohio's tax system was up for consideration at the annual convention of the Association of County Auditors here today.

Election of officers was the first business on the program with Joseph A. Lutz of Dayton slated for promotion from vice president to president.

In tackling the revenue problem, the auditors indicated they would place before the legislature a bill creating a new law for taxation of National bank shares to replace one recently held unconstitutional. They also planned a detailed discussion of the new Classification Tax System under which present forms of taxation must be revamped. The classification plan, approved by the voters a year ago, becomes effective in January.

PRISONERS BACK IN COUNTY JAIL

Escaped Pair Returned To Lisbon After Period Of Freedom

Carl Ward and Frank Fause, Parkersburg, W. Va., men who escaped from the Columbiana county jail at Lisbon Friday night, are back in their cells today. They were returned from Marietta by Sheriff William J. Barlow and Police John Poltz of Wellsville last night.

Fause is suffering from frozen feet and a sprained ankle, the latter injury having been sustained, according to county officials, when he jumped from the roof of the jail kitchen to the ground in effecting his escape Friday.

The two men admitted stealing an automobile belonging to Edward Hartman and two blankets from the garage of Frank McGrew, of Lisbon. They went to Canton, Cambridge, and then to Marietta where they were apprehended.

Roy Groves of Youngstown and Okey Fause of Parkersburg, are still at large.

There are a lot of people who would like to pay their debts if it wasn't for their motor cars.—Florida Times-Union.

"A MAN FROM WYOMING"

At The Grand
Gary Cooper, hero of "The Virginian" and "The Texan," becomes a gallant captain the U. S. Engineers in "A Man From Wyoming," which opens at the Grand Theatre tonight.

"A Man From Wyoming" is the story of the war adventures of a young Westerner who enlists at the first bugle call and serves valiantly in the great conflict in France.

During a hard battle June Collyer, a society girl ambulance driver, makes her way to the front. "A. W. O. L." She wanders into Cooper's territory and draws shell-fire. He is forced to arrest her. He treats her roughly, but he cannot help admiring her grit. She is fascinated by his stern manliness, and the result of their friendship is marriage in a small French village.

They spent three happy days together in happy abandon. But he is ordered back to the trenches again. Later on June reads a report which lists Cooper as among those killed. Overwhelmed by the news she plunges into an orgy of wild parties. Meanwhile Cooper, not killed but badly wounded, is sent to the base hospital where June is an attaché. He is shocked to learn of her scandalous behavior. She tells him in vain, that she had been trying to forget the tragedy of the false news of his death. But he does not believe her. Their differences lead to a bitter argument, but after a series of exciting events they are brought together finally in a happy reunion.

"WHOOPEE"

At The State
"Whoopee," the Samuel Goldwyn-Florenz Ziegfeld production in technicolor starring Eddie Cantor, brings to the theatre what is believed to be the outstanding achievement in film technicolor yet accomplished. The picture is shown for the last time tonight at the State theatre. All the lavishness implied in these two names appears in the gorgeous scenes, the beautiful girls, the rib-splitting comedy from Eddie Cantor and his numerous assistants the fast pace and the splendid photography which make "Whoopee" what it is.

This plot, with Eddie Cantor as the imaginary invalid, offers a million opportunities, none of which are missed. Both in comedy and in spectacle, of which the "Invocation to the Sun" scene at the end is the most striking, "Whoopee" leaves nothing to be desired.

The role of the heroine is taken by beautiful Eleanor Hunt. Samuel Goldwyn's latest discovery, Chief of the beauties who adorn the spectacle scenes is Dorothy Knapp, "The most beautiful girl in the world." Chief Caupolican's performance as the Indian lover who turns out to be a perfectly good white man in the end is excellent.

THE DAY In Sports

SELECT BIG TEN TEAM
LEAGUE MOGULS GATHER

Representatives of ten schools in the Northeastern Ohio Athletic association will hold their monthly meeting at Massillon next Monday evening to complete plans for the 1930-31 basketball season and discuss events which occurred during the past football season. Much is scheduled for discussion at the gathering as the season left plenty to be desired before it might be called a real success as far as the organization is concerned. The matter of increasing the number of games to be played against league members is one of the most important items scheduled for discussion.

Another matter of interest to members of the ten league football teams will be the selection of a mythical All-Big Ten team by newspapermen and coaches of various schools. At the November meeting the plan to name the all-star teams was given approval and sports writers and coaches of all cities will be present to back the selection of favorites.

The selection of at least four Salem players on the team seems assured. Other players will be selected from Warren, Wooster, Massillon and Niles while New Philadelphia is expected to win places in selection of ends. Other teams failed to produce any players of extraordinary talent.

The selection of all-star teams appears to be a national pastime at the close of football season. The team that is considered as the official All-American will be published in the News for the first time Saturday when Associated Press selections are released. These selections are made through a nation-wide poll of more than 450 coaches, newspapermen and other grid experts. Allan Gould, sports editor of The Associated Press, will have a complete story of the 33 players honored in Saturday's News. Watch for it.

Clarence Siding, word comes to us from the University of Cincinnati publicity bureau today, ended a fine career with the Bearcats when he tossed a series of accurately placed forward passes to bring his team a 7-0 upset victory over Miami last week. A member of the Cincinnati varsity eleven for three years, Siding brought his career to a spectacular close by leading his team in the surprising victory and after the game was presented with the football used in the game as a souvenir.

In 1929 Siding was awarded honorable mention on the Associated Press All-Ohio team and this year merited the same honor. He was one of the Cincinnati team's outstanding backs the entire three years he played there.

Next season he will be succeeded by his brother Ed who now is a sophomore at Cincinnati. Ed is rated as one of the most promising halfbacks ever enrolled at the school but was handicapped by injuries during the past season. He scored six touchdowns and was destined to rank as one of the leading scorers in the conference until he sustained two broken ribs in one of the school's important battles.

Another former Salem High star, Malcolm Rush, is again Bethany, W. Va., college's outstanding basketball star and has been elected to captain the team during the coming season. Also a fine football player, Rush withdrew from gridiron competition having sustained a fractured skull in the early part of the 1929 season and will devote his activities in athletics to basketball and baseball.

He was one of three high-point men in the Tri-State conference in 1929-30 season.

Substitute Star Will Replace Fullback For Grid Battle On Coast

(By Associated Press)
TUCSON, ARIZ., Dec. 4.—The task of filling Fullback Larry Mullins' shoes added to Coach Knute Rockne's worries today as he marshaled his Notre Dame Rough Riders for their final workouts, preparatory to the invasion of the University of Southern California.

Rockne yesterday revealed Mullins would not be able to play against the Trojans because his knee, badly wrenched in the Army game last week, had not responded to treatment.

The loss of Mullins, who replaced "Galloping Joe" Savoldi when the latter was dismissed from school for his venture into matrimony, was a sad blow to Notre Dame's hopes of victory.

Drill Sub Backs
Dan Hanley, who jumped into a certain amount of fame during the Drake game, and Al Howard, a member of the "shock troop" squad, were drilled to replace Mullins.

"It makes the outlook darker than I had feared," Rockne said. "Mullins was a great defensive player in addition to his great ability to carry the ball and we'll miss him."

Any and everybody were afforded a welcome to watch the Rough Riders go through their first drill on the University of Arizona field yesterday, but today's practices were secret. A light scrimmage was on the program and spirits were high despite the loss of Mullins.

After two workouts today the Notre Dame squad planned to go aboard its special train for the final journey to Los Angeles arriving there Friday.

REAL BATTLE LOOMS
Knute Rockne Diagnoses Situation In Interview: Possession Of Ball To Be Factor

TUCSON, ARIZ., Dec. 4.—An offensive battle from start to finish with the team that can hold the ball the longest the most likely winner, was the way Knute Rockne sized up the Southern California-Notre Dame game today for the United Press.

"I know that Howard Jones is going to send his team into the game to rush us off our feet," said Rockne. "There's just one way for us to break up his plans and that's for us to get the ball and hold it as long as we can. I look for the team that can hold possession of the ball the majority of the time to win."

Although a trifle downcast over the unexpected loss of Larry "Moon" Mullins, first string fullback, who is out of the game with an injured knee, Rockne refused to stress the loss of a regular fullback for the second time this season on the eve of a big game. Joe Savoldi withdrew from school the week before the Northwestern game.

Loss Hurts Chances
"I had expected Mullins to be in shape to play and I felt that he would play one of the greatest games of his career," commented Rockne, "but now he's out and we've got to make the best of it."

Dan Hanley, 190-pound sophomore, will start in Mullins' place at fullback, with Al Howard, Alhambra, Calif., Youngstown in reserve. Hanley who played his first game of the year against Drake November 15, is expected to add offensive strength to the team, but weaken it defensively. Against Drake, Hanley made one 37-yard run for a touchdown and another for 73 yards. Rockne insists that Hanley is very weak against forward passes, and that it will be bad news for the Irish if the Trojans get a man loose near Hanley on an aerial.

Will Start Regardless
Rockne plans to start his first team and it's quite likely that the regulars will remain in the game as long as possible with replacements sent in when necessary. "One play" Johnny O'Brien, who was in the Army game in 1928 for only one play, but caught a pass which won the game 12 to 6, has virtually won the first string left end job from Host and Kisky and probably will start with the regulars.

It was O'Brien's blocking which made possible Schwartz's long runs for touchdowns against both Army and Northwestern. Each time O'Brien broke fast and picked off the secondary defense halfback in Schwartz's path.

O'Brien is a great pass catcher and he's much overdue for a long pass down the field. It wouldn't be surprising to see him figure prominently in a dazzling Notre Dame pass attack Saturday. Rockne still sticks to his early prediction that Southern California should win, but he has yet to make the flat statement that the Trojans will triumph. He always qualifies the prediction with an "if" and "or" but.

Refuses To Give Up

Hart is a triple threat whom Colgate followers regard as a stronger all-around player than the famous Eddie Tryon. He is almost as big as Macaluso and is an outstanding blocker and passer. He, too, has received much attention from the all-star pickers.

Colgate Fullback, Maroon Captain In Lineup Again West

HAMILTON, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Len (Iron Legs) Macaluso, Colgate fullback, and Les Hart, Maroon captain and other half of the great backfield, will play with the East against the West in the New Year's day contest at San Francisco. Andy Kerr, their coach, announced today.

Macaluso leads the nation in scoring with 144 points with the post season charity contest with New York university at New York Saturday offering further scoring opportunity. Most of the all-America pickers have named "Iron Legs" their fullback.

ED BECK SECOND IN SCORING FOR BIG TEN SEASON

Wooster Star Outscores Salem Halfback In League Contests

Ed Beck, flashy Salem High halfback and triple-threat star who scored 121 points during the late 1930 football season, tied for second place in Big Ten district scoring, a summary of the year's records showed today.

Beck shared runner-up honors with Bill Windland, Alliance High fullback, while high-point laurels were awarded to Talliaferro, flashy Wooster quarterback who participated in five league games during the season. Beck and Windland each played in only 3 league games, one of which resulted in a 6-0 draw.

Talliaferro scored 37 points in the five games, registering six touchdowns and one extra point. Beck and Windland each scored four touchdowns.

Beck Ahead For Season
For the season Beck was by far the outstanding point-maker in the entire district. Windland, second to the Salem star in seasonal scoring, had 66 points.

William Smith, Salem quarterback, was eighth in the list of Big Ten point-makers while Johnny French was eleventh. The complete list of league players breaking into the scoring column follows:

Baseball's Leading Figures Attend Annual Sessions At Montreal; Plan '31 Campaign

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(Copyright 1930, by International News Service)

MONTREAL, Dec. 4.—Three of the most illustrious personages in baseball—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Chicago Cubs and Donie Bush, manager of the Chicago White Sox—were among the hundreds of baseball men gathered here today at the annual convention of the minor leagues. The trio, interviewed separately by the writer, made the following assertions:

1.—McGraw said that under no circumstances will he sell or trade Freddie Lindstrom, his third baseman, rumors to the contrary notwithstanding.
2.—Hornsby declared he is in fine physical condition and that he plans to play second base for the Cubs next season.
3.—Bush, a great shortstop in his day, said that Luke Appling, shortstop for Atlanta last season, has a great chance to make the grade as the White Sox's regular shortstop next season. Bush further declared that he is willing to trade any player on the White Sox with the exception of three players—Pitchers Lyons and Thomas and Outfielder Reynolds.

No Trades In View
McGraw, asserted he is merely "looking around" and meeting old

McDonald To Play Cage Opener Friday

McDONALD, Dec. 4.—The McDonald High boys' and girls' basketball teams are preparing for a stiff season ahead.

They open Friday at Liberty. Here's the way the 19-game schedule lines up for the 1930-31 season:
Dec. 5, at Liberty; Dec. 12, at Hubbard; Dec. 13, at Cortland; Dec. 19, at Howland; Dec. 20, Mineral Ridge.

Dec. 23, Alumni; Jan. 9, Cortland; Jan. 10, at Scienceville; Jan. 16, at Brookfield.
Jan. 17, Girard; Jan. 23, Liberty; Jan. 24, at Struthers; Jan. 30, at Mineral Ridge; Jan. 31, Hubbard; Feb. 6, Howland; Feb. 7, at Vienna; Feb. 13, at Girard; Feb. 14, Chaney; Feb. 19, Tournament.

Warren High Opens Cage Season Dec. 12

WARREN, Dec. 4.—With football out of the way, athletes at Warren High school have turned their attention to basketball, a squad of 40 boys reporting to Coach Pierre F. Hill for opening workouts.

Prospects for a good season are anything but bright as but few veterans of last year's mediocre squad will be available. Outstanding are Burick, a forward, and Johnson, a guard.
The Red and White quintet will make its debut on Dec. 12, with Brookfield.

LONDON—Lady Astor in a speech said the reason she was grossly misrepresented was that she supported temperance and education, both unpopular.

friends and that he has no definite trades in mind at this time.
Rogers Hornsby said he looked forward to next season when he will lead the Chicago Cubs.
"There will be five clubs in the National league that will be hard to beat in 1931," said Hornsby. "They are St. Louis, Chicago, Brooklyn, New York and Pittsburgh."

Asked if he was trying to buy any ball players, he said "No," adding "We are all set."

He admitted, however, that the Cubs would like to get "Sunny Jim" Bottomley, first baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, who is reported to be on the market.

Manager Bush of the White Sox was generous in his praise of Shortstop Appling, obtained from Atlanta. He said Appling has a good chance to beat our Cissell and Mulcahey for the shortstop job on the White Sox.

Praises Gilbert
Speaking of shortstops, Bush said in his opinion Charley Gilbert, St. Louis Cardinal shortstop, was the class of the major leagues.
Bush did not deny that Willie Kamm, star third baseman of the White Sox, might be traded.

Rumors have it that Bush would like to swap him for Lew Fonseca, hard hitting first baseman of the Cleveland Indians. Fonseca has consistently hit around 330 and 340.

"My problem next season is to get set at first base, second base and center field," said Bush.
Bush said "Young Ed" Walsh, one of his pitchers, is a "puzzle."

"Young Ed Walsh has lots of ability but he has his faults," said Bush. "He is nothing like the pitcher his father was but he has possibilities."

Colds May Develop Into Pneumonia

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take.

Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing

elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

DISTRESSING cold in chest or throat—that so often leads to something serious—generally responds to good old Musterole with the first application. Should be more effective if used once every hour for five hours.

This famous blend of oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other helpful ingredients brings relief naturally. Musterole gets action because it is a scientific "counter-irritant"—not just a salve—it penetrates and stimulates blood circulation, helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by doctors and nurses. Keep Musterole handy—jars and tubes.

To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

TAKE that Padlock off your purse

You may think in sealing up your purse you are protecting your individual prosperity in hoarding a reserve that will keep you until real good times come around again. Don't you realize that within that locked purse you are actually imprisoning prosperity and the scarcer will be the dollars that will come to you to store away in that purse.

Whether you are a wage-earner, a merchant or a manufacturer, your income must come from what some one else is spending or consuming. People must buy the things you sell or produce or business becomes stagnant . . . the wage-earner is discharged, the merchant fails and the manufacturer ceases production for lack of replacement orders.

Where is your income coming from if every one keeps a padlock on his purse? Spending is the only media of prosperity . . . money kept in circulation is the motive power that keeps business going; keeps employment active and guarantees your personal prosperity. All America is coming to a realization of that fact now . . . awakening to the real source of depression and is entering upon a relief program of buying so that the merchant has an outlet for his goods . . . so he can order from the manufacturer . . . so the manufacturer can employ more help to produce these goods . . . so the worker can earn more money to spend. There is no relief from depression; no return to prosperity; no solution to unemployment until buying becomes general.

The manufacturers and merchants are doing their part now to make buying an inducement and a profit to the consumers because prices now on all important commodities are down to the lowest possible levels.

IT'S PATRIOTIC TO BUY NOW!

IT'S GOOD SENSE TO BUY NOW!

IT'S THRIFTY TO BUY NOW!

DETERDING ON RUSSIA
WHAT IS HEALTH?
THE WORST HATRED.
TWO GREATEST PICTURES

By Arthur Brisbane
(Copyright 1930 By King Features
Syndicate, Inc.)

Sir Henri Deterding, powerful and intelligent, says: "The Russian is a likeable fellow, a great dreamer, musician, and imaginative writer. But you can't organize him. It's hard to organize two Russians, impossible to organize three. Therefore, the Soviet five-year plan will not succeed."

Just at present, it is succeeding, however, with the aid of the great industrial concerns in the United States financing and building it, and able American engineers working on the spot in Russia. You don't learn all about the character of Russians by studying Tolstoy with his dreaming, or Gorky, or the Karamazoff brothers. You must also study Ivan the terrible, and some other Russians, especially Peter the Great.

From them you learn what Russia can do for good and for evil and how great her power is. Modern Russian scientists and engineers prove that no country has monopoly of technical skill. In will power, driving force, no people exceed the Russians.

A girl from Iowa and a boy from Missouri are selected as the "healthiest boy and girl in the nation." The girl scored 99.7 out of a possible 100 points. The boy scored 98.7.

Such scoring, of course, means little. Life and health depend primarily on heart, kidneys, lungs and nerve force.

The lungs can be developed, heart and kidneys can be protected. Nervous energy can be built up somewhat, but you get most of it at birth.

Voltaire, as a baby, had fits, and if it hadn't been for a kind hearted Catholic priest, who showed his mother how to take care of him putting him in hot water when the fits came on, he would have died as a baby. Instead, having wonderful nervous force, he died in Paris long past 80—after a tremendous triumph, in which one of his plays was produced.

One of the 200 popular took the homes, and his carriage and dragged him home. He had worked furiously all his life.

Health goes deeper than pink cheeks and sparkling eyes.

The worst of all hatreds is religious hatred. In one of the recently established Balkan countries, 400 students celebrate a gathering by beating with heavy ticks all the Jews they meet and smashing windows in stores owned by Jews.

A mob of 200 popular took the Catholic archbishop of Leprol from entering Notre Dame convent, to attend a prize giving. The convent windows are stoned, railings torn down and the archbishop pelted by the mob but fortunately escaped serious injury.

A recent fire in a Catholic church in New York city is attributed to arson, as is another in New Jersey.

FIRE THREATENS DESTRUCTION OF NEW YORK PLANT

Million-Dollar Loss To Result From Gasoline, Oil Explosion

300 FIREMEN FIGHT WATERFRONT BLAZE

200,000 Gallons Gasoline, Oil, Turpentine Burn; Fireboat Damaged

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Streams of flaming oil pouring from the Pratt works of the Standard Oil company illuminated the Brooklyn waterfront early today.

The fire, which threatened for a time to wipe out the entire plant, was stemmed by forces working by land and by water after a fight of three hours.

More than 200,000 gallons of gasoline, crude oil and turpentine and 18 tanks in which it was stored, were destroyed. Piers, barges, a fireboat and tanker were damaged as the fiery mass poured into the East river between the Williamsburg and Fifty-ninth street bridges.

Million-Dollar Loss

Fire department officials said the loss might reach a million dollars. The fire started in a terrific explosion of a 10,000-gallon crude oil tank through underground pipes, the flames and burning fuel spread quickly to a 50,000-gallon petroleum tank, eight more crude oil receptacles and eight turpentine tanks.

As the petroleum tank blew up, it tore away an 18-foot brick wall hurling debris on the firefighters. The remaining tanks poured blasts as they caught fire and rocked the area. The liberated oil flowed into the river through westers and over the ground.

Dangerous Warehouse

The blaze narrowly missed igniting a three-story brick warehouse filled with 5,000 cases of naphtha and 500 drums of oil. The fireboat New Yorker and the oil tanker, Vernon, flamed up but were saved. Several barges were caught in the inferno but a number were taken out in the river for safety.

Some 40 companies, comprising about 300 men, and four fireboats trained great streams of water and chemicals on the blaze. Flaming oil was chased from manhole to manhole in a sewer which ran through the plant into the river.

TRIO LOST ON LAKE RESCUED

Fishing Tug Is Towed To Wheatley By Canadians

(By Associated Press)

LORAIN, Dec. 4.—Three men who had almost been given up for lost in Lake Erie were safe at Wheatley, Ont., today, none the worse for drifting helplessly for a day.

While coast guard cutters, fishing tugs and airplanes were scouring the lake for them, Capt. Charles Abel, 47, reported he and his two men aboard the fishing tug N-1688 had been towed to Wheatley by Canadian fishermen.

Lake Erie coast guardsmen meanwhile took up a search aided by 10 tugs and two airplanes which were flown along the south shore of the lake. Besides Capt. Abel, Melvin Easterwood, 72, of Lorain, and Carl Miller, 45, were aboard the boat.

Capt. Abel and his men had put out Tuesday in an attempt to save fish nets which had not been recovered because of the recent storms.

SIX HOSPITAL INMATES FREED BY ARMED TRIO

Flee In Autos From Matteawan Institution For Insane

(By Associated Press)

BEACON, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Three men, armed with guns, invaded Matteawan state hospital for the criminal insane early today, overpowered four employees and liberated six inmates.

Leader Former Inmate

The leader of the gang, who was recognized as a former inmate by hospital attendants, said he was William Nelson, of New York.

The six who were liberated were: Harry Gordon, 38, Rochester; Frank Danberkeyen, 31, New York.

Joseph Kaylor, 35, the Bronx; John S. Bangill, 22, New York; John Higgins, 30, Brooklyn.

Anthony A. Elloy, 44, Brooklyn. Dr. Raymond F. C. Kieb, superintendent, said the three men entered the hospital grounds through the rear yard where they encountered Patrick McGrath, the night watchman and compelled him to accompany them.

In the kitchen they came upon Clifford Cooper, night cook. Forcing him to join them, they continued through the building toward the front where they picked up Joseph Brown, the roundsman. Then they herded their prisoners into the front office where Samuel Kane, the night office man was on duty.

While one of them guarded their prisoners the other two went to the front dormitory where the six men were in bed. The six apparently were watching for them.

Dr. Kieb said, for as soon as the intruders appeared they sprang up from their cots and ran out. Two of them left clad only in night attire. They drove away in two automobiles.

The superintendent said those who escaped were not known as dangerous, but were suffering from mental diseases which manifest themselves in extreme cunning.

BRITISH COAL MINERS REJECT WALKOUT PLAN

Delegates To London Conference Vote Against General Strike

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Dec. 4.—Delegates to the coal miners' conference today voted 239,000 to 209,000 to reject a proposal for a general strike in protest at application of the "spreadover" hours arrangement to British mine shafts.

Triumph for MacDonald

The vote represented a triumph for Prime Minister MacDonald and members of the cabinet who had sat with the delegates' conference for hours, urging all efforts for settlement of the difficulties with the mine operators, including, if necessary, endorsement of the spread-over.

The vote followed a report of the miners' leaders on the situation and probable results of application of the spreadover, which would entail a 90-hour working fortnight against a 74-hour day guarantee, which the miners have insisted upon.

Margin Is Small

After the vote was taken there was a general discussion of the situation. Observers noted that the margin of rejection of the strike proposal was very small.

Seventy thousand miners in Scotland already are in protest at the spreadover.

FINANCE CHIEF SEES INCREASE IN TAX INCOME

Elimination Of One Percent Cut Will Swell Revenues

WILL CONTINUE PRESENT SYSTEM

Opposition Expressed To Slowing Of Debt Reduction

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—In his annual report to congress, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today reflected the apparent belief that there will be a revival of business by the middle of next year.

He estimated miscellaneous internal revenue receipts would gain $53,000,000 and he also predicted an increase of $70,000,000 in income and corporation taxes would result from the elimination of the one percent tax reduction granted by congress last year.

Increased activity of commerce and industry in the last half of the 1931 calendar year would influence government receipts in the 1932 fiscal year which starts July 1.

Receipts To Gain

Mellon estimated customs receipts at $612,000,000 and miscellaneous internal revenue, including the tobacco taxes, at $676,000,000 for 1932, both figures being larger than the actual collections for the 1930 fiscal year.

On the subject of branch, group and chain banking, Mellon declared that commitments regarding legislation to regulate these developments should not be made until investigations by congress, the federal reserve board and the comptroller of the currency progress.

He expressed the belief that the procedure of "compromising" wherever possible government and the taxpayer an opportunity of getting a prompt decision. In answering congressional critics of the system Mellon asserted "the treasury proposes to continue its present policies."

Firm On Debt Stand

Opposition was expressed to any slowing up in the rate of reduction of the public debt from the present statutory requirements of the sinking fund and the application of principal payments on foreign debts. It had been suggested the sinking fund be suspended during the present year to avoid a deficit.

The financial and business situation during the last 18 months was carefully analyzed. As a result of the business depression and stock market crash Mellon estimated that income taxes, which amounted to $2,410,000,000 last year, would be reduced by $220,000,000 for the year ending next June.

It is also announced that the state will improve the Lincoln highway in Madison township next year from Madison stop on the Y. & O. railway to the Madison-St. Clair township line, passing the East Liverpool airport.

Cost of repairing the brick section of the Lisbon-Salineville road has been heavy during the last few years. The road was one of the early narrow brick roads built in the county.

CAPITAL GAINS TAX

Arthur Brisbane believes the most important paragraph in President Hoover's message to congress was that one dealing with the capital gains tax. Most important to those most interested, Mr. Brisbane probably means. The paragraph follows:

"It is urged by many thoughtful citizens that the peculiar economic effect of the income tax on so-called capital gains at the present rate is to enhance speculative inflation and likewise impede business recovery. I believe this to be the case and I recommend that a study be made of the economic effects of this tax and of its relation to the general structure of our income tax law."

Mr. Hoover could not well remain deaf to the protests which have been made against the tax. It has been unpopular from the start and, following the explosion of the speculation bubble, received blame for over-speculation. The reasoning was that owners of securities delayed taking their gains, which are taxable upon the sale of capital gains tax. This is a very real thing buying in the stock market. As a consequence, the tax is unduly.

Capital net gains are defined as profits from the sales of any property including securities, held for at least two years. Since 1922 the taxpayer has had the option of separating such gains from the remainder of his income, and paying a special tax of 12 1/2 per cent upon them, in lieu of the regular normal tax and surtaxes. This provision was inserted lest owners of property and securities refuse to sell them if required to return an exceptionally large percentage of their profits to the government in the form of income taxes. In the Revenue Act of 1921, applicable to 1922 and 1923, the maximum surtax rate was 50 per cent.

Preliminary figures for income for 1928 show that capital net gains were 6.47 per cent ($1,843,339,590) of the total income reported in returns of individuals. The percentage has increased steadily since 1922 when it amounted to only one per cent. As would be expected the percentage of capital net gain to total income increases in proportion to the size of the income, rising from 1.73 per cent for incomes under $25,000 to 47.69 per cent for incomes over $1,000,000.

The time is right for an attack on this tax. It can be charged, as the president has admitted, that it impedes business recovery and enhances speculative inflation. Those to whom it is the most important paragraph in Mr. Hoover's speech because it happens to affect their incomes have a ready-made opportunity to work for its abandonment.

THE BUDGET MESSAGE

When you give up in doubt and disgust with your own reasoning processes after trying to understand the figures in President Hoover's Budget Message don't feel ashamed. Better mathematicians have done worse.

The House of Representatives, for instance, will refer the budget, in whose preparation the President plays only a small part, incidentally, to its committee on appropriations, which will resolve itself into 10 sub-committees. The findings of these small groups as well as those of similar groups in the senate which will consider the budget later rarely are questioned. The complexities of the budget are so formidable that the ordinary legislator knows better than to try to understand them without special knowledge.

Actually, the people who know most about the budget are obscure office workers, rated by the publicity they receive. They are employees in the bureau of the budget, established because national finances were becoming too difficult for amateurs to manage. If the bureau's reports on the finances of a nation of 120,000,000 people are slightly incompressible, therefore, one can only hope that the help he has employed to do such work is capable.

For purposes of fireside argument and discussion it is sufficient to know that $3,932,842 have been requested to run the government for the next fiscal year. Due to a falling off in receipts this year and an increase in expenditures there probably will be a deficit of approximately $180,000,000.

President Hoover has warned congress to go slow in the matter of spending money between now and March. The current fiscal year ends in July.

The government's balance sheet, exclusive of postal revenues, looks like this:

Year Ending July, 1931
Est. Receipts	Est. Expenditures
$3,834,865,000	$4,014,941,000
Est. Deficit—$180,076,000
Year Ending July, 1932
Est. Receipts	Est. Expenditures
$4,085,119,000	$4,054,519,000
Est. Surplus—$30,600,000

Duly impressed with such figures, perhaps a little proud of living in a nation which spends so much money, each citizen can be thankful that the handling of appropriation bills in congress usually is non-partisan in character. If tradition be followed, the bills which will take form out of the President's Budget message go through the house largely as written by that body's committee, will be increased by the Senate committee, will be pared down in joint conference of the two general committees and finally will come back to Mr. Hoover only slightly lower than they were yesterday, as projected in his Budget message.

The Stars Say

For Friday, December 5

While there is augury of an eventful day, with some minor change or journey, according to the fairly friendly position of Uranus, yet there are omens of defeat and undermined conditions, possibly due to subtlety, intrigue and treachery, even in those matters pertaining to large corporations or secret societies. With particular discretion an alertness, things may progress mildly. Those whose birthday it is are on the eve of a fairly progressive state of affairs, with some small change, journey or removal, but withal, beset by a menace of treachery or intrigue, especially in the matter of new or secret projects. The financial status is not a strong one. A child born on this day may be clever and adventurous, but may be subject to duplicity and fraud. Self inclining to ways of stratagem and mystery.

READ THE WANT COLUMN

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—A cheer is due booksellers and publishers for the deft manner in which they snatched their business from almost complete oblivion a few months ago. All of a sudden the entire industry went haywire. Even book-borrowing began to decline.

Book shops, department store book sections and circulating libraries suggested the rotunda of Grand Central at 4 a. m. Price slashing had no effect whatever. Authors attended sales in the big stores and offered to autograph their tomes gratis but few came.

The economic crisis played a large part in the debacle. Hastily written books contributed and there were the radio and talkies to consider. This sudden and disquieting avalanche was too much to plug up over night. Book sales came to an almost complete full stop.

Some panic-stricken publishers began to announce $2 and $2.50 books at a dollar and others half price. But the morose ideas of this sort, exploited the duller the business, its low peak was reached when an avenue shop is reputed to have sold only four books in a day.

In the chaos publishers did something that should be a future lesson for other enterprises in the gasp of a sinking spell. Whether it was collectively or individually decided, I do not know, but almost simultaneously all began to advertise as never before.

They put on a dignified ballyhoo. Press material usually sent to columnists tripled. More ads in larger display filled newspapers. Book talks were features in radio hours. Coupled with this was more discrimination in selecting manuscripts.

At any rate the book business is bouncing out of the red. It is far from its after-the-war opulence, but it is in a healthier condition than it has been for months. There are records, too, that in depression book sales sag. With returning prosperity people begin to read again.

The firm of Simon and Schuster is composed of two young men—the New York glorified office boy types—who began five years ago in a single room. On their door was painted: "Simon and Schuster—Publishers." Underneath a wag painted: "Of what?"

Another young publishing firm is Farrar and Rinehart. Stanley Rinehart is the son of Mary Roberts Rinehart, whose books are among those the firm publishes. Farrar was editor of the Bookman, a discriminating judge of literature and has a notion—expressed to mutual friends—that this chronicler bears a grievance against him.

Once I referred to Farrar as "a pale young poet." He is not appreciative, checked, is young and a poet. I imagined, in light of what is turned out about me at times, my comment—had a dallop of praise.

Just yesterday a clipping from Texas said: "McIntyre has a neck like an ostrich that just guished a croquet ball. He walks like a three-wheeled ice wagon, has lantern jaws and the last time he was in Texas went wild cat hunting in Texas. I like Texas frankness. They shoot the piece or give up dice."

But regarding books, a seller tells me his biggest customer is a retired merchant who buys an average of 14 books a week, reading chiefly novels and autobiographies. He further says that in his opinion Sinclair Lewis has "the most pronounced following" in America. From recent events, Mr. Lewis also has a pronounced following in other countries, including the etc.

In the underworld they now refer to the big shot as "the high hot"—and if the printer makes it but I'll put again.

I called in Fred Fitch, my chauffeur and severe critic, to permit him to see my house suit from Paris, which he had just brought from the custom's office. It is a "trifle giddy, but I see no reason for his inquiry." That's to wear in a show, isn't it?

My Friends: Correct Your Eating Faults and Lose Your Fat With Kruschen Salts

Yes! I'm forty-five today—built like a race horse my friends say and I know I feel 10 years younger than I did three months ago—and I'd hate to tell you how much fat I lost with Kruschen. I call Kruschen Salts the "magic salts" because when I was fat and wretched, despondent and half sick all the time—it took only one bottle that I bought for 85 cents at Lease Drug Co. and Broadway Lease Drug Store, to live me up—put ambition and energy into me—make me feel years younger and with the help of a change in diet show me how to lose the fat I was so ashamed of.

Cut out pastries and desserts—go easy on potatoes, cream, chicken, butter—eat lean meat, chicken, fish, vegetables and fruits and never fail to take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning.

Every drug store worthy of the name in the World sells Kruschen Salts—an 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—not much to pay for buoyant health.

What Others Say

CASTING DOUBT ON A SOLEMN TREATY

In a petition addressed to President Hoover and signed by many educators, industrial leaders and others, including some federal senators, the suggestion is made that the United States sound the major powers of Europe and Asia to discover whether they will entertain a proposal to outlaw war by formally and expressly declaring it a crime under the law of nations. It is fair to assume that President Hoover and Secretary Stimson will decline to do anything so foolish and mischievous.

The Briand-Kellogg treaty, which has been signed by practically all the nations of the earth, renounces war as an instrument of national policy. It is without sanctions, properly and fortunately, but it is not a mere bit of altruistic phrasing. It is a solemn moral pledge. But the misguided petitioners have set about casting doubts upon its validity. They assume that it may be regarded by its signatories as something Pockwician. That is a good way to cause it to be so regarded.

Their argument is that any nation is free to withdraw from the pact, while some may be tempted to violate it in spirit while professing to adhere to its letter. International law, on the other hand, the petitioners say, can not be trampled upon with impunity, for it is recognized by all national courts. In their opinion no group of statesmen clothed with brief authority would venture to commit the crime of making war if the law of nations plainly and unequivocally called war a crime.

The twister of good, but nervous, folk test the Briand-Kellogg multilateral treaty fly suddenly into fragments amounts to the casting of doubt upon the good faith of the governments which have bound themselves by the treaty. That is a preposterous route by which to approach responsible governments of friendly and faith-keeping people for the purpose of asking further pledges of them.

The Briand-Kellogg treaty is a magnificent act of renunciation or else it is mere words. Surely the president of the United States will not undertake deliberately to reduce it from the former status to the latter in response to suspicions conjured up out of the dark past.—Chicago News.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

Rules For Feeding Baby
Recently I called at a charming home where a baby of seven months was the centre of household interest. It was a sweet baby, but very, very pale. The poor youngster was irritable and gave visible evidence of undernourishment.

DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND

the age of the baby is the determining factor.

Study Feeding System
But age alone cannot be accepted as the sole test of the frequency or the richness of the feedings. There is but one reliable test, that is the baby itself. Unless there is uninterrupted increase in weight, something is wrong, either with the quantity and quality of the milk, or with the underlying state of health.

For some reason this mother had recently lengthened the period between feedings from three hours to four hours. As I view it the strength and vigor of the child were not sufficient to justify a limitation in the quantity of food. With fewer feedings there was not enough nourishment.

Before the new eating time came this baby was ravenously hungry. Naturally it jumped at the bottle and went at its feeding so energetically that the milk was taken too rapidly. It swallowed a lot of air as it gulped down its food. No wonder the baby was uncomfortable and unhappy.

This is not the way to feed a baby. It should be done just right, or it is all wrong.

Bottle-Size Vital

The rubber nipple is important. If the nipple is too long, it will press against the roof of the mouth and cause gagging. The particularly important thing, however, is to have the opening the right size and the nipple is applied, turn the bottle bottom side up. If the milk runs out in a stream, the opening in the nipple is to large. The milk should drop, readily, but not flow.

If the opening is large, the food is taken too rapidly. It should require twenty minutes to empty the bottle. Rapid feeding may result in colic, indigestion and vomiting. Under nourishment is certain to follow.

RAIL WORKERS ASK TIME CUT; WAR ON BUSSES

Executives Of Five Brotherhoods Convene In Cleveland

(By Associated Press) CLEVELAND, Dec. 4.—Executives of five big railroad brotherhoods met today with the object of making railroad jobs shorter and safer. They comprised the sub-committee selected at the recent Chicago conference to lay plans for obtaining a shorter working day. The present conference, however, is concerned primarily with doing something for the 150,000 unemployed estimated to be on the rolls of the unions represented.

Fight Competition
The other purpose is to prepare for a common fight with railroad operators against the competition of motor trucks, pipe lines, waterways and buses, according to David B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

Robertson said 50,000 men now out of work could be given jobs at once if the number of miles traveled by train crews on each shift were reduced and the number of working hours cut down for other railroad men.

Ultimately, the brotherhoods hope to gain what is understood to be the equivalent of a six-hour day without a wage reduction from the present eight-hour day. Temporarily, however, Robertson said readjustment could be made without an increase in operating costs.

Oppose Waterways
Robertson also said the brotherhoods were in accord with operators' opposition to the government's large expenditures to develop waterways "when railroad facilities more than adequately meet the demands of the present."

After the sub-committee completes its deliberations, the General committee may be called in. Those scheduled to meet today were Robertson; Alvaney Johnston, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; Alex F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; E. P. Curtis, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors; and T. C. Cashen, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America.

Why should there be a protest against moving pictures or any other reasonable entertainment on Sunday? The Bible says the Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.

The two greatest moving pictures in the world are a fine sunset and the rushing water of Niagara. The Lord does not close them on Sunday.

Why not let those that want pictures on Sunday see them, and those that want to stay home, stay home?

Why the itch in one man's mind to control the life of another?

Senator Nye says he can prove that the backers of Mr. Davis, recently secretary of labor, elected senator from Pennsylvania, spent $641,274 in the primaries, to elect Mr. Davis.

The sum seems gigantic, particularly as Mr. Davis is a poor man, a labor union official, promoted to the cabinet. It would have been absolutely impossible for him to spend that amount of money, or anything like it.

Senator Nye also alleges that Senator Davis' friends spent $272,312 more than the amount actually reported. Mr. Davis, of course, will demand an opportunity to disprove these statements, or to show that the expenditures were legitimate and the "backers" entirely respectable.

THREE BLAMED FOR ROBBERIES AND KIDNAPING

Youngstown Patrolman, Warren Merchant Identify Youths

(By Associated Press) CLEVELAND, Dec. 4.—A trio of alleged robbers in custody here have been identified with a series of Youngstown holdups and the kidnapping of a Warren man, police said today.

Names Two Youths
Frank B. Gould, assistant manager of a Warren store, late yesterday said John Massee, 17, and John Ramper were two of the youths who kidnapped him Monday, drove him to a lonely place two miles south of the city and robbed him of $150. He said police there had kept the holdup a secret because he feared reprisals.

Gould also said John Harrison, the third youth held, resembled the driver of the kidnappers' car. Patrolman William Huffman of Youngstown identified Ramper and Harrison as the two men who shot it out with him in a barbecue two weeks ago. Ramper also confessed to 12 robberies in Youngstown in the last six weeks, according to Detective Chief Thomas W. Thomas, of Youngstown.

Massee is Wounded
The trio was captured here Tuesday night after Massee was wounded when he attempted to escape. Accompanied by a fourth man who ran to liberty in a blaze of bullets, they had just robbed two chain grocery stores, police said. The men who escaped were the one believed to have been wounded in the fight with Patrolman Huffman at Youngstown and to have had his leg treated at a Warren hospital.

Several Summer Homes, Concession Stands Are Damaged

(By Associated Press) NEWARK, Dec. 4.—Fire swept through several cottages and concession stands at Buckeye lake near here early today causing damage of between $8,000 and $10,000.

Cause of the fire was undetermined. It was discovered after having gained considerable headway. None of the cottages or concession stands were in use at the time.

Fire departments from Newark, Hebron, and Millersport kept the flames from reaching the Lake Breeze hotel, principal hotel at the resort. Buildings destroyed were a restaurant, barber shop, and shooting gallery owned by Joseph Leach; the William Vader restaurant; a cottage belonging to W. J. Giphart of Columbus; two cottages owned by E. J. Holtsberry of Buckeye lake, and C. C. Baker, boat landing on the west side.

REVOLUTIONARY MOVE BLOCKED; BOMBS SEIZED

Explosive Cargo Found In Taxi; Arrests Are Made

(By Associated Press)

LISBON, Portugal, Dec. 4.—Police announced today that a large quantity of bombs and explosives had been seized in various parts of the city, and a revolutionary movement, in which it was planned to blow up public buildings, thwarted.

Find Bomb Cargo

A mysterious taxicab gave the police their first hint of the plot. The cab was stopped and found to contain a cargo of the bombs, destined for one of the depots of the revolutionaries.

The driver confessed participation in the conspiracy and implicated sergeant Joaquin Feliciano Freire. When arrested, Freire implicated others, all of whom were arrested except two lieutenants, Manuel Correia and Pio, both of whom escaped. The police searched the homes of the conspirators and seized more than 600 bombs.

Among those arrested was a captain of infantry, his name undivulged, two sergeants, and 20 civilians. One of those arrested, Maria Monteiro, who denounced her friend, Lieutenant Pio, eluded the attention of his guards and jumped from a window. He landed hard and suffered grave contusions about the head.

Legislation Considered By Association At Annual Convention

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, Dec. 4.—Proposed legislation affecting Ohio's tax system was up for consideration at the annual convention of the Association of County Auditors here today.

Election of officers was the first business on the program with Joseph A. Lutz of Dayton slated for promotion from vice president to president.

In tackling the revenue problem, the auditors indicated they would place before the legislature a bill creating a new law for taxation of National bank shares to replace one recently held unconstitutional. They also planned a detailed discussion of the new Classification Tax System under which present forms of taxation must be revamped. The classification plan, approved by the voters a year ago, becomes effective in January.

Escaped Pair Returned To Lisbon After Period Of Freedom

Carl Ward and Frank Fause, Parkersburg, W. Va., men who escaped from the Columbiana county jail at Lisbon Friday night, are back in their cells today. They were returned from Marietta by Sheriff William J. Barlow and Police John Foltz of Wellsville last night.

Fause is suffering from frozen feet and a sprained ankle, the latter injury having been sustained, according to county officials, when he jumped from the roof of the jail kitchen to the ground in effecting his escape Friday.

The two men admitted stealing an automobile belonging to Edward Hartrun and two blankets from the garage of Frank McGrew, of Lisbon. They went to Canton, Cambridge, and then to Marietta where they were apprehended.

Roy Groves of Youngstown and Okey Fause of Parkersburg, are still at large.

There are a lot of people who would like to pay their debts if it wasn't for their motor cars.—Florida Times-Union.

REVOLUTIONARY MOVE BLOCKED; BOMBS SEIZED

Explosive Cargo Found In Taxi; Arrests Are Made

(By Associated Press)
LISBON, Portugal, Dec. 4.—Police announced today that a large quantity of bombs and explosives had been seized in various parts of the city, and a revolutionary movement, in which it was planned to blow up public buildings, thwarted.

Find Bomb Cargo
A mysterious taxicab gave the police their first hint of the plot. The cab was stopped and found to contain a cargo of the bombs, destined for one of the depots of the revolutionaries.

The driver confessed participation in the conspiracy and implicated sergeant Joaquin Feliciano Freire. When arrested, Freire implicated others, all of whom were arrested except two lieutenants, Manuel Correia and Pio, both of whom escaped. The police searched the homes of the conspirators and seized more than 600 bombs.

Among those arrested was a captain of infantry, his name undivulged, two sergeants, and 29 civilians. One of those arrested, Maia Monteiro, who denounced his friend, Lieutenant Pio, eluded the attention of his guards and jumped from a window. He landed hard and suffered grave contusions about the head.

The two men admitted stealing an automobile belonging to Edward Hartman and two blankets from the garage of Frank McGraw, of Lisbon. They went to Canton, Cambridge, and then to Marietta where they were apprehended.

Roy Groves of Youngstown and Okey Fause of Parkersburg, are still at large.

There are a lot of people who would like to pay their debts if it wasn't for their motor cars.—Florida Times-Union.

They also planned a detailed discussion of the new Classification Tax System under which present forms of taxation must be revamped. The classification plan, approved by the voters a year ago, becomes effective in January.

Rabbit Is Useful Animal; Prompts Growing Industry

Rabbit breeding, the use of the animals for food, furs and other purposes, is destined to become an outstanding industry according to O. C. Barnes, Salem district sales representative of a Dundee, Mich. packing company.

Explaining the rapid growth of the rabbit growing industry under supervision of the U. S. government in the last two years, Barnes said today that, eventually, the growing of rabbits and their sale for food and fur uses will become a major industry.

Trucks Makes Rounds
The Michigan concern which Barnes represents maintains several hundred rabbit-growers in Ohio and is expanding to other states. Breeding rabbits are sold to prospective growers and the off-spring are purchased by the company.

Growers in Salem and vicinity bring rabbits to Barnes' residence on the North Ellsworth road and at regular periods trucks are sent there by the company to collect the animals. More than 1,000 live rabbits can be placed in one truck.

Experiments are now being conducted by Columbia university in New York City to ascertain the food values of a rabbit. Results of early experiments show it to be high. Barnes explaining that three pounds of rabbit meat provides a large amount of nitrogenous and fatty food as well as necessary protein.

58 In Salem District
There are 58 growers of rabbits under Barnes' supervision in the vicinity of Salem while his entire district includes more than 500 growers. More than 1,000 rabbits will be collected by the company truck on its visit here Friday, he says.

The live rabbits are taken to Dundee, are killed under government supervision, inspected and every part used for some purpose. The ears are sent to glue factories, feet sold as novelties, heads for fertilizer, other parts for fish bait, wool for making of yarn, other furs for coats, and the meat canned and sold fresh.

"A MAN FROM WYOMING"

At The Grand

Gary Cooper, hero of "The Virginian" and "The Texan" becomes a gallant captain the U. S. Engineers in "A Man From Wyoming," which opens at the Grand Theatre tonight. "A Man From Wyoming" is the story of the war adventures of a young Westerner who enlists at the first bugle call and serves valiantly in the great conflict in France.

During a hard battle June Collier, a society girl ambulance-driver, makes her way to the front. "A. W. O. L." She wanders into Cooper's territory and draws shell-fire. He is forced to arrest her. He treats her roughly, but he cannot help admiring her grit. She is fascinated by his stern manliness, and the result of their friendship is marriage in a small French village.

They spent three happy days together in happy abandon. But he is ordered back to the trenches again. Later on June reads a report which lists Cooper as among those killed.

Overwhelmed by the news she plunges into an orgy of wild parties. Meanwhile Cooper, not killed but badly wounded, is sent to the base hospital where June is an attaché. He is shocked to learn of her scandalous behavior. She tells him in vain, that she had been trying to forget the tragedy of the false news of his death. But he does not believe her. Their differences lead to a bitter argument, but after a series of exciting events they are brought together finally in a happy reunion.

"WHOOPEE"

"Whoopie," the Samuel Goldwyn-Florenz Ziegfeld production in technicolor starring Eddie Cantor, brings to the theatre what is believed to be the outstanding achievement in film technicolor yet accomplished. The picture is shown for the last time tonight at the State theatre. All the lavishness implied in these two names appears in the gorgeous scenes, the beautiful girls, the rib-splitting comedy from Eddie Cantor and his numerous assistants the fast pace and the splendid photography which make "Whoopie" what it is.

"Whoopie," what it is. This plot, with Eddie Cantor as the imaginary invalid, offers a million opportunities, none of which are missed. Both in comedy and in spectacle, of which the "Invocation to the Sun" scene at the end is the most striking. "Whoopie" leaves nothing to be desired. The role of the heroine is taken by beautiful Eleanor Hunt. Samuel Goldwyn's latest discovery, Chief of the beauties who adorn the spectacle scenes is Dorothy Knapp. "The most beautiful girl in the world," Chief Caupolican's performance as the Indian lover who turns out to be a perfectly good white man in the end is excellent.

THE DAY In Sports

SELECT BIG TEN TEAM
LEAGUE MOGULS GATHER

Representatives of ten schools in the Northeastern Ohio Athletic association will hold their monthly meeting at Massillon next Monday evening to complete plans for the 1936-37 basketball season and discuss events which occurred during the past football season. Much is scheduled for discussion at the gathering as the season left plenty to be desired before it might be called a real success as far as the organization is concerned. The latter of increasing the number of games to be played against league members is one of the most important items scheduled for discussion.

Another matter of interest to members of the ten league football teams will be the selection of a mythical All-Big Ten team by newspapermen and coaches of various schools. At the November meeting the plan to name the all-star teams was given approval and sports writers and coaches of all ten teams will be present to back the selection of favorites.

The selection of at least four Sam players on the team seems assured. Other players will be selected from Warren, Wooster, Massillon and Niles while New Philadelphia is expected to win places in election of ends. Other teams failed to produce any players of extraordinary talent.

The selection of all-star teams appears to be a national pastime at the close of football season. The team that is considered as the official All-American will be published in the News for the first time Saturday when Associated Press selections are released. These selections are made through a nation-wide poll of more than 450 coaches, newspapermen and other grid experts. Allan Gould, sports editor of The Associated Press, will have a complete story of the 33 players honored in Saturday's News Watch for it.

Clarence Sidinger, word comes to us from the University of Cincinnati publicity bureau today, ended a fine career with the Bearcats when he tossed a series of accurately placed forward passes to bring his team a 7-0 upset victory over Miami last week. A member of the Cincinnati eleven for three years, Sidinger brought his career to a spectacular close by leading his team in the surprising victory and after the game was presented with the football used in the game as a souvenir.

In 1929 Sidinger was awarded honorable mention on the Associated Press All-Ohio team and this year earned the same honor. He was one of the Cincinnati team's outstanding players the entire three years he played there.

Next season he will be succeeded by his brother Ed who now is a sophomore at Cincinnati. Ed is rated as one of the most promising halfbacks ever enrolled at the school but was handicapped by injuries during the past season. He scored six touchdowns and was destined to rank as one of the leading scorers in the conference until he sustained two broken ribs in one of the school's important battles.

Another former Salem High star, Malcolm Rush, is again Bethany, W. Va., college's outstanding basketball star and has been elected to captain the team during the coming season. Also a fine football player, Rush withdrew from gridiron competition having sustained a fractured skull in the early part of the 1929 season and will devote his activities in athletics to basketball and baseball.

He was one of three high-point men in the Tri-State conference in the 1929-30 season.

Substitute Star Will Replace Fullback For Grid Battle On Coast

(By Associated Press)
TUCSON, ARIZ., Dec. 4.—The task of filling Fullback Larry Mullins' shoes added to Coach Knute Rockne's worries today as he marshaled his Notre Dame Rough Riders for their final workouts, preparatory to the invasion of the University of Southern California.

Rockne yesterday revealed Mullins would not be able to play against the Trojans because his knee, badly wrenched in the Army game last week, had not responded to treatment.

The loss of Mullins, who replaced "Galloping Joe" Savoldi when the latter was dismissed from school for his venture into matrimony, was a sad blow to Notre Dame's hopes of victory.

Drill Sub Backs
Dan Hanley, who jumped into a certain amount of fame during the Drake game, and Al Howard, a member of the "shock troop" squad, were drilled to replace Mullins.

"It makes the outlook darker than I had feared," Rockne said. "Mullins was a great defensive player in addition to his great ability to carry the ball and we'll miss him."

Any and everybody were afforded a welcome to watch the Rough Riders go through their first drill on the University of Arizona field yesterday, but today's practices were secret. A light scrimmage was on the program and spirits were high despite the loss of Mullins.

After two workouts today the Notre Dame squad planned to hop aboard its special train for the final journey to Los Angeles arriving there Friday.

Knute Rockne Diagnoses Situation In Interview; Possession Of Ball To Be Factor

TUCSON, ARIZ., Dec. 4.—An offensive battle from start to finish with the team that can hold the ball the longest the most likely winner, was the way Knute Rockne sized up the Southern California-Notre Dame game today for the United Press.

"I know that Howard Jones is going to send his team into the game with a plan to win," Rockne said.

MACALUSO WILL PLAY WITH EAST
Colgate Fullback, Maroon Captain In Lineup Again West

HAMILTON, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Len (Iron Legs) Macaluso, Colgate fullback, and Les Hart, Maroon captain and other half of the great backfield, will play with the East against the West in the New Year's day contest at San Francisco, Andy Kerr, their coach, announced today.

Macaluso leads the nation in scoring with 144 points with the past season charity contest with New York university at New York Saturday offering further scoring opportunity. Most of the all-America pickers have named "Iron Legs" their fullback.

Hart is a triple threat whom Colgate followers regard as a strong all-around player than the famous Eddie Tryon. He is almost as big as Macaluso and is an outstanding blocker and passer. He, too, has received much attention from the all-star pickers.

game to rush us off our feet," said Rockne. "There's just one way for us to break up his plans and that's for us to get the ball and hold it as long as we can. I look for the team that can hold possession of the ball the majority of the time to win."

Although a trifling downcast over the unexpected loss of Larry "Moon" Mullins, first string fullback, who is out of the game with an injured knee, Rockne refused to stress the loss of a regular fullback for the second time this season on the eve of a big game. Joe Savoldi withdrew from school the week before the Northwestern game.

Loss Hurts Chances
"I had expected Mullins to be in shape to play and I felt that he would play one of the greatest games of his career," commented Rockne, "but now he's out and we've got to make the best of it."

Dan Hanley, 190-pound sophomore, will start in Mullins' place at fullback, with Al Howard, Alhambra, Calif., Youngstown, in reserve.

Hanley, who played his first game of the year against Drake November 15, is expected to add offensive strength to the team, but weaken it defensively. Against Drake, Hanley made one 37-yard run for a touchdown and another for 73 yards. Rockne insists that Hanley is very weak against forward passes, and that it will be bad news for the Irish if the Trojans get a man loose near Hanley on an aerial.

Will Start Regardless
Rockne plans to start his first team and it's quite likely that the regulars will remain in the game as long as possible with replacements sent in when necessary. "One play" Johnny O'Brien, who was in the Army game in 1928 for only one play, but caught a pass which won the game 12 to 6, has virtually won the first string left end job from Host and Kisky and probably will start with the regulars.

It was O'Brien's blocking which made possible Schwartz's long runs for touchdowns against both Army and Northwestern. Each time, O'Brien broke fast and picked off the secondary defense halfback in Schwartz's path.

O'Brien is a great pass catcher and he's much overdue for a long pass down the field. It wouldn't be surprising to see him figure prominently in a dazzling Notre Dame pass attack Saturday. Rockne still sticks to his early prediction that Southern California should win, but he has yet to make the flat statement that the Trojans will triumph. He always qualifies the prediction with an "if" and/or "but."

"We haven't given up the ship yet, to borrow a Logan from John Paul Jones," Rockne commented in his queer Nordic humor. "But we have the rowboats all ready."

Baseball's Leading Figures Attend Annual Sessions At Montreal; Plan '31 Campaign

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(Copyright 1930, by International News Service)

MONTREAL, Dec. 4.—Three of the most illustrious personages in baseball—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Chicago Cubs and Donie Bush, manager of the Chicago White Sox—were among the hundreds of baseball men gathered here today at the annual convention of the minor leagues. The trio, interviewed separately by the writer, made the following assertions:

1.—McGraw said that under no circumstances will he sell or trade Freddie Lindstrom, his third baseman, rumors to the contrary notwithstanding.

2.—Hornsby declared he is in fine physical condition and that he plans to play second base for the Cubs next season.

3.—Bush, a great shortstop in his day, said that Luke Appling, shortstop for Atlanta last season, has a great chance to make the grade as the White Sox's regular shortstop next season. Bush further declared that he is willing to trade any player on the White Sox with the exception of three players—Pitchers Lyons and Thomas and Outfielder Reynolds.

McGraw, asserted he is merely "looking around" and meeting old

The Red and White quintet will make its debut on Dec. 12, with Brockfield.

Rumors have it that Bush would like to swap him for Lew Fonseca, hard hitting first baseman of the Cleveland Indians. Fonseca has consistently hit around 330 and 340.

"My problem next season is to get set at first base, second base and center field," said Bush.

Bush said "Young Ed" Walsh, one of his pitchers, is a "puzzle."

"Young Ed Walsh has lots of ability but he has his faults," said Bush. "He is nothing like the pitcher his father was but he has possibilities."

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

TAKE that Padlock off your purse

You may think in sealing up your purse you are protecting your individual prosperity in hoarding a reserve that will keep you until real good times come around again. Don't you realize that within that locked purse you are actually imprisoning prosperity and the scarcer will be the dollars that will come to you to store away in that purse.

Whether you are a wage-earner, a merchant or a manufacturer, your income must come from what some one else is spending or consuming. People must buy the things you sell or produce or business becomes stagnant . . . the wage-earner is discharged, the merchant fails and the manufacturer ceases production for lack of replacement orders.

Where is your income coming from if every one keeps a padlock on his purse? Spending is the only media of prosperity . . . money kept in circulation is the motive power that keeps business going; keeps employment active and guarantees your personal prosperity. All America is coming to a realization of that fact now . . . awakening to the real source of depression and is entering upon a relief program of buying so that the merchant has an outlet for his goods . . . so he can order from the manufacturer . . . so the manufacturer can employ more help to produce these goods . . . so the worker can earn more money to spend. There is no relief from depression; no return to prosperity; no solution to unemployment until buying becomes general.

The manufacturers and merchants are doing their part now to make buying an inducement and a profit to the consumers because prices now on all important commodities are down to the lowest possible levels.
